You will join industry leaders such as: Tatung, Honeywell, Bosch Security, Coin Mechanism, Philips, Reliable Security, Sanyo Fisher, Medeco Security Locks, and more.

Exhibit at G2E Pavilions and Tap Growing Market Niches in Gaming

Powerful Industry Support—G2E is an American Gaming Association (AGA) event. The AGA represents the commercial casino-entertainment industry by addressing federal legislative and regulatory issues affecting its members and their employees and customers. AGA members attend G2E and are making buying decisions. The AGA memberships include 150 casinos, approximately two-thirds of the commercial casino industry, with 255K+ employees.

Hard-Hitting and Far-Reaching Marketing Support—Pavilions are promoted through direct mail that targets and reaches 40,000 gaming industry executives worldwide multiple times. In addition, pavilions receive exposure on the G2E Web site year round.

Comprehensive Media Exposure—200+ media covered or scouted at G2E 2004, including all major trade press and all local NBC, ABC, FOX and ABC Las Vegas affiliates, Associated Press, Bloomberg News, CBS MarketWatch, Chicago Sun Times, CNBC, Dow Jones, Las Vegas Review-Journal, Las Vegas Sun, Las Vegas Business Press, Los Angeles Times, Reuters and The Wall Street Journal.

Join the Premiere Industry Event—G2E is the largest international event for the gaming industry and the only event held in the fall. At G2E 2004 there were 15,999 attendees from the gaming industry around the world.
